Huntingwood Condominium Association Rules

APPROVED BY HUNTINGWOOD BOARD MAY 13, 2015

These rules incorporate many of the most relevant provisions of the DECLARATION OF CONDOMINIUM OF HUNTINGWOOD, THE MEADOWS PRIDE AND PRESERVATION, and MEADOWS REGULATIONS. Residents are encouraged to read the Declaration and the Meadows rules. Copies of Huntingwood and Meadows documents are available on the Meadows Community Association website at www.themeadowssarasota.org. When changing these rules it is necessary to verify that any changes do not conflict with provisions of the Declaration or Meadows Documents. The interpretation and application of these rules is within the jurisdiction of the Huntingwood Board of Directors unless specified otherwise. Failure to conform to and abide by the By-laws and Rules & Regulations which have been adopted from time to time by the board will result in penalties specified by the board.

These Rules and Regulations have been revised by the Board of Directors of the Huntingwood Condominium Association, Inc on the following dates: 3/6/89, 5/5/92, 6/29/93, 12/14/94, 4/12/95, 3/25/96, 11/8/01, 2/14/02, 8/23/04, 7/13/06, 10/12/06, 2/12/09, 2/10/11, 5/13/15

The Condo Unit

A. LEASING

1. A unit may not be leased for less than three months or more than two times in any calendar year. Long-term rentals are permitted.
2. Units are for single-family residential use only.
3. Subletting or leasing part of the unit is prohibited.
4. The unit cannot be used in violation of any laws, ordinances, or regulations of any governmental body.
5. During the time the unit is leased or occupied by others, the owners shall not have the right to use the common elements or facilities except as the guest of another owner or lessee.
6. All sales or leases must be submitted to the Association or its agent no less than 14 days prior to the commencement of the lease or acceptance of the offer to purchase.
7. Specific information and forms relating to leasing is provided in the Appendix. The prospective tenant or purchaser may NOT enter into possession of the unit until the Association or its agent has advised the owner of approval.
8. Unit owners are responsible for all actions of lessees, renters or guests.

B. EXTERIOR APPEARANCE

1. You cannot change the exterior appearance of the unit without prior approval of the Huntingwood Board. This requires submitting an Architectural Review Form which is included in the Appendix. This includes painting or otherwise changing the appearance of any exterior wall, door, window, patio or any exterior surface. It also includes the painting or staining of sidewalk dividers, sidewalks, and driveways.
2. Exterior painting is the responsibility of the Association. Residents may touch up paint on their buildings, doors, and gates using approved materials which are available from Scott Paint, 4034 N Washington Blvd. The colors are "Huntingwood Stucco" and "Huntingwood Red Door". Any good black enamel can be used on the gate.
3. You cannot put sunscreens, blinds, awnings, signs or lights on the unit. Any changes to the exterior of the building or the uniform appearance of the building require written Board approval.

C. STRUCTURAL CHANGES

1. These require written Board approval and may require MCA approval. This includes enclosing the lanai.
2. You may make interior changes which do not involve removing structural elements. Any fixtures fastened to a wall or ceiling should be able to be removed without substantial damage to the wall or ceiling structure.
3. Changes cannot be made which affect common elements.
4. You cannot subdivide a unit for the purpose of sale or lease. You can combine two adjacent units for use as one unit. If you combine two units you must pay two fees.
5. You cannot block ingress or egress to other units or common areas.
6. You may need to get building permits from Sarasota County for structural changes.

D. COURT YARDS

1. Changes will require prior approval from the Board. Examples include: Tiling, moving/capping sprinkler heads, screen doors, painting or staining of any concrete, etc. All requests must be submitted to the Board in writing. The Huntingwood Architectural Review form is included in the Appendix.. Samples of materials being used or pictures should be provided.
2. A covenant, which is included in the Appendix, should be filed with Sarasota County as soon as the work is complete.
3. Lightweight garden fixtures can be installed on the inside of the courtyard wall. Nothing should be attached to the wall that would threaten its stability.
4. When you sell the condo, you must remove the items and restore the walls to their original condition. Nothing should be attached to the outside of the wall.
5. Decoration within the courtyard should not affect the uniform appearance of the unit or Huntingwood.
6. Nothing is to be placed on the top or on the outside of courtyard walls. This applies to both plants and decorations as they can damage the brickwork and walls.
7. Owners are responsible for the care and cleaning of their umbrellas and for any damage they may cause.
8. Furniture, grills, pots, statuary, etc. should be stored when an owner is away from the property for an extended period of time as they can cause damage in the event of a storm.

E. COURTYARD LANDSCAPING

1. Trees may not be planted in the ground within the courtyard without Board approval. Any in-ground planting of ficus, Norfolk Pine, fruit trees, or other trees, plants, or shrubs which are considered invasive species by the State of Florida will not be approved.
2. All varieties, except those considered invasive species, are permitted in pots.
3. Vines are not permitted to grow on the walls.
4. Mulch should be kept at least 4" away from any wall.
5. Small plants, less than 4 feet, may be planted within the courtyard.
6. The landscape committee has authority on plantings that grow taller than the courtyard wall.
7. Any damage to the irrigation system or structure that these plants may cause is the sole responsibility of the owner/resident. Alterations to the irrigation system other than capping off an existing sprinkler head must be approved by the Board and our irrigation contractor
8. You may elect to accept full responsibility for your courtyard care by attaching a green ribbon to the gate. If you do that. the landscapers will not enter your courtyard.
9. If you do not indicate that you are taking care of it, the landscape personnel will take care of the courtyard to the best of their ability. This includes all decisions regarding the pruning of plantings.

F. COMMON AREAS

1. Planting or removing trees, shrubs or sod in the common area require Landscape Committee & Board approval.
2. Replacement of trees and shrubs is at the discretion of the Landscape Committee subject to Board approval.
3. Owner/Resident replacement requires Landscape Committee approval.
4. No reimbursement will be made for owner/resident replaced plants or sod.
5. Painting or staining sidewalk dividers, sidewalks, or driveways is not permitted.

G. VEHICLES

1. Each unit owner or occupant must register the vehicles used by the occupants of the unit. This information is to be provided on a form which is available from the Association and is included in the Appendix.
2. A vehicle cannot be parked overnight on the property unless it is registered.
3. Only two (2) vehicles are allowed per unit. NOTE: Vehicles of guests staying less than 2 weeks are exempt from the registration requirement, but must meet other requirements.
4. Commercial vehicles, trucks, pickups, boats, campers, motor homes, or trailers may NOT be parked on the premises overnight unless they are parked in an enclosed garage. They will be towed at owner/resident's expense. These vehicles must be parked elsewhere such as in the secured parking area provided by the MCA.
5. Owners' cars cannot be left on Huntingwood property if their unit is leased or rented.
6. No vehicle may be parked in the open parking areas or carport if it is not in regular use, or if it has an expired license tag or it is not street-worthy.
7. NO vehicle may be parked on the roadways or grass.
8. Parking a vehicle that blocks access to a unit, other than the unit owners vehicle, is prohibited, unless that owner gives permission.

H. CARPORT & PARKING INFORMATION

1. Only one parking space per unit is guaranteed, either a carport or a garage. This space is to be used before parking elsewhere in Huntingwood.
2. Carports are for the use of licensed vehicles and golf carts and shall not be used for the storage of anything else. A golf cart may not be stored in any place other than a carport or garage.
3. The carport shall be kept in a neat and orderly condition by the owner at all times.

I. PETS

1. Only domestic animals as defined in the Sarasota Code of Ordinances such as dogs, cats, rabbits, birds, etc. are allowed without special prior permission of the Board.
2. Only two animals not exceeding 20 inches in height at the shoulder or a weight not exceeding 45 pounds at maturity are allowed, if approved by the Board.
3. Authorized pets must be kept on a leash whenever they are outside of the unit. Immediate clean-up is required when "walking the dog".
4. Pets whose behavior, in the opinion of the Board, becomes a nuisance may be referred to Sarasota County Animal Control for enforcement action.

J. GUESTS

Any guest of an owner or lessee will be considered as an occupant/resident and will be bound by all Huntingwood Condominium Association Rules and Regulations.

K. GARBAGE & RECYCLING INFORMATION

1. Garbage and recycling pick-ups are on Mondays.
2. NO garbage is to be put out until after 5:00 PM on Sunday.
3. Garbage and recyclables must be placed in proper containers.
4. Cans and bins should be removed from the curb and stored, as soon as possible, after pickup has been made.
5. Yard waste should be bagged and labeled.
6. If your waste is not picked up, call Waste Management at 941- 493-4100.

L. POOL

All users of the pool area are to keep it in a clean and orderly condition. It belongs to the Association and should be respected as a community amenity. Pool rules must be followed. General rules are posted at each pool.

More specific rules follow:
